

What is a Bereavement Care Volunteer?

---

Volunteers in a hospice bereavement program make home visits and phone contact with people grieving the loss of family members or loved ones, and may also assist hospice counselors with record-keeping and other clerical tasks. Special training is usually needed to help prepare a volunteer for this important role.

